THE INTERNATIONAL FUND FOR AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ROME "LA SAPIENZA"

THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF "ROMA TRE"

and

THE CENTRE FOR ECONOMIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ROME "TOR VERGATA"

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (hereinafter referred to as the "Memorandum") by and between the International Fund for Agricultural Development (hereinafter referred to as "IFAD"), the Department of Economics and Social Sciences of the University of Rome "La Sapienza" (hereinafter referred to as "DISSE"), the Department of Economics of the University of "Roma Tre" (hereinafter referred to as "Department of Economics RM3") and the Centre for Economic and International Studies of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" (hereinafter referred to as "CEIS"), hereinafter separately referred to as a "Party" and jointly referred to as "Parties".

WHEREAS IFAD is a specialized agency of the United Nations and an international financial institution duly established and existing under the Agreement Establishing IFAD, approved by the United Nations Conference on 13 June 1976 and entered into force on 30 November in 1977. IFAD's mandate is to invest in rural people in developing countries, empowering them to increase their food security and escape poverty by helping them build their resilience, expand their businesses and livelihoods.

WHEREAS DISSE was established in January 2012 thanks to the merge of the previous Department of Social Sciences of the University of Rome "La Sapienza", with the previous Department of Economic and Social Analysis (formerly Department of Economic Theory and Quantitative Methods for Political Choices). It gathers an interdisciplinary academic staff of sociologists, economists, historians, psychologists, jurists, anthropologists, and statisticians whose approach to research, whilst open to theory, is mainly of an empirical nature. Its main goal is to foster interdisciplinary research and promote higher education for Bachelor, Master, PhD and post-doctoral degrees.

WHEREAS the Department of Economics RM3 was created in 1993, with the aim to promote the scientific advancement and dissemination of both theoretical and applied socio-economic research. The Department of Economics RM3 follows a multidisciplinary approach to the study of the economy and of society, and fosters the integration and coordination between teaching and research.

WHEREAS CEIS was established in 1987 and is an internationally recognized economic research centre within the University of Rome Tor Vergata. Its main goal is to contribute to people's education and training, to scientific research and to the technological, organisational and social innovation needed to achieve a truly sustainable development in Italy, Europe and worldwide pursuant to the Sustainable Development Goals approved by the United Nations in 2015.

WHEREAS the Parties wish to cooperate in areas of common interest and make a more decisive impact towards the shared goal of agriculture sector development by capitalizing on their comparative advantages, and increasing complementarities and synergies.
