

Guest Presentation:
10 Things you should know about Philanthropy for Development

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Tuesday, 10 September 2018

Oval Room, IFAD Headquarters, Rome

Agenda

- 15.30 – 16.00 Refreshments
- 16.00 – 16.15 Welcome and Introduction, Charlotte Salford, Associate Vice-President, External Relations and Governance Department, IFAD
- 16.15 – 16.30 Presentation 10 Things you should know about Philanthropy for Development, Lorenzo Pavone, Head, a.i., Partnerships and Networks Unit, OECD
- 16.30 – 17.30 Q&A session and reflections from the audience
Luis Jiménez-McInnis, Director, Partnership and Resource Mobilization Office, IFAD

Lorenzo Pavone
Head of Partnerships and Networks Unit (a.i.)
OECD Development Centre

Lorenzo Pavone is the Head of the Partnerships and Networks Unit (a.i) at the OECD Development Centre. Prior to this assignment, he worked for three years as the Deputy Head of the same unit overseeing the OECD Global Network of Foundations Working for Development (netFWD) and the OECD Emerging Markets Network (EMnet). He also worked as a Policy Analyst and Project Co-ordinator at the OECD Global Relations Secretariat, working on initiatives to support policy reforms in the field of private sector development and competitiveness in Eastern Europe, South Caucasus and Central Asia. He has experience in private sector development, investment promotion and business climate assessment. Before joining the OECD, Lorenzo worked as a senior consultant in economic development and foreign direct investment attraction and as a development economist and programme officer at the Development Co-operation Office of the Italian Government in Tunisia. He holds an MBA from HEC Paris and a Master's Degree in Economics from the University of Rome La Sapienza.