

Staff Appointment:

Andrzej Antoszkiewicz, Associate Vice-President, Corporate Services Department (CSD)

I am pleased to announce that, after a competitive recruitment process, I have decided to appoint Mr. Andrzej Antoszkiewicz, to the position of Associate Vice-President for the Corporate Services Department (CSD) effective January 19th 2026.

Andrzej joins us from the King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue (KAICIID), where he served as Chief Operating Officer, ensuring strategic and operational excellence. Prior to this, Andrzej held leadership roles at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Paris, the Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) in Zurich, the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) in Vienna, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) in Brussels as well as earlier experience in the Canadian federal government and Silicon Valley.

He brings extensive experience overseeing all corporate functions, including HR, Finance, Procurement, Administration, Events, Facilities, Technology, Innovation, Monitoring & Evaluation, as well as Corporate Strategy.

A dual national of Canada and Poland, Andrzej holds an MBA from Oxford University and advanced degrees in Engineering from Queen's University.

Please join me in warmly welcoming Andrzej to his new role.

I would also like to sincerely thank Guoqi Wu for outstanding service as AVP/CSD. We are deeply grateful for Guoqi's dedication over the years, leading the decentralization of the organization, advancing staff mobility, driving significant changes to our IT systems, and preparing us for new AI technologies. Guoqi will be greatly missed. Please join me in wishing Guoqi all the best in future endeavours.
